The duties include assessment of health care needs of clients, development, coordination and implementation of care/service plans, conducting community health programs; and consultation within multidisciplinary and multi-agency teams in order to achieve desirable outcomes for individuals, families and the community. The position is distinguished from that of Registered Professional Nurse in the Health Department in that a Community Health Nurse possesses specialized training to analyze the interaction of individuals and their environment in providing a holistic health care plan. The work is performed under the general supervision of a Supervising Community Health Nurse with wide leeway allowed for the use of independent judgment in assessing patients’ needs and implementing care plans. The position acts as a team leader over the work of registered nurses and support staff and in the provision of services to clients. The incumbent does related work as required.
